

MINIMUM STANDARDS REGARDING DEng REGISTRATION

1. An application form (Application Form - DEng Registration.pdf) and CV, together with the candidate's full list of publications, are submitted to a designated DEng Admissions Committee of the Faculty of Engineering. The DEng Admissions Committee typically consists of at least three people, where at least two people are not from the home department of the candidate. The majority of members of the DEng Admissions Committee should have obtained a senior doctorate degree, or have a profile that would make him/her a fit candidate for obtaining a senior doctorate. The DEng Admissions Committee is proposed for each candidate, by the Vice-Dean (Research), in consultation with the relevant department. The DEng Admissions Committee is approved by the Dean. If the Dean himself is a candidate of the DEng Admissions Committee, then the DEng Admissions Committee must be approved by the Vice Dean (Research) and the Vice Dean (Teaching).
2. An executive summary (maximum 600 words), together with the application, must be prepared by the candidate. This document must contain only the following information:
 - 2.1. The title of the research project.
 - 2.2. The name of the candidate.
 - 2.3. The name of the supervisor(s).
 - 2.4. The body of the executive summary with the following numbered sections:
 - 2.4.1. An outline of the unique contribution that the candidate's publications have made in a specific field of research.
 - 2.4.2. A comprehensive time framework for the completion of the dissertation.
3. The DEng Admissions Committee assesses the executive summary and makes a recommendation to the Departmental Admissions Committee. The DEng Admissions Committee is free to request the candidate to give an oral presentation, and also to request that the executive summary is improved upon, and submitted for reconsideration.
4. The recommendation of the DEng Admissions Committee is submitted to the Departmental Admissions Committee.
5. After the acceptance/rejection of the executive summary by the DEng Admissions Committee, the recommendation form (Admissions Committee Recommendation - DEng Registration.pdf) is completed by the Departmental Admissions Committee, and sent to the Faculty Secretary, together with the completed DEng application form (Application Form - DEng Registration.pdf), to be placed on the agenda of the Faculty Committee
6. The recommendation form and executive summary are submitted to the Faculty Committee for possible recommendation to the Faculty Board.
7. After approval by the Faculty Board, the candidate is registered for DEng.